Short title and definition

1. These rules may be called the Indian Rubber Control Rules, 1916.

2. In these rules:—

(i) "Act" means the Indian Rubber Control Act, 1914;

(ii) "Committee" means the Indian Rubber Controlling Committee;

(iii) "Controller" means the Chief Executive Officer appointed under section 2 of the Act;

(iv) "Fixed limit of a rubber estate" means the standard production of the estate as fixed under the provisions of these Rules;

(v) "Allowable exportable surplus" means the sum of the general export allowance as declared by the Government in Council by notification in the Gazette of India prior to the export of rubber during a four-year period of imported rubber during the year;

(vi) "Young rubber" means trees planted with rubber saplings prior to the year 1915;

(vii) "First full year" means the period of each year of rotation from the first of January to the first of January; and

(viii) "Second full year" means the period of each year of rotation from the first of July to the 31st of December.

Rules under section 16 providing for Committee's procedure and accounts.

3. The Committee shall maintain an office for the transaction of its business, and may open branch offices should occasion arise.

4. Not less than five meetings of the Committee shall be held in each year.

5. These provisions shall form a system for members of the Committee and their members shall form a system for members of any sub-committee.

6. A record shall be maintained of all business transacted by the Committee or by any sub-committee.

7. The Committee shall submit to the Government in Council as soon as may be possible after the last day of each month various statements in Forms A1, A2 and A3 set forth in the Second Schedule.

8. (i) The Committee shall, in the month of November in each year, prepare an estimate of its income and expenditures for the year commencing on the first day of January next ensuing.

(ii) A copy of such estimate shall be presented for approval to the Government in Council.

9. (i) The accounts of the Committee shall relate to the calendar year and shall be made up for each calendar year and forwarded to the Government in Council as soon as possible after the close.

(ii) The accounts shall include all sums received by the Committee during the year to which the accounts relate and shall be shown under the following heads:—

(a) Sums received under section 27 of the Act;

(b) Sums received as interest;

(c) Miscellaneous.

The opening balance shall be shown at the head of the account on the receipt side.

(ii) The expenditures shall be shown under the following heads:—

(b) Post-office charges;

(c) Travelling and daily allowances;

(d) Stationery and printing;

(e) Fuel and light charges;

(f) Payments to the International Rubber Regulation Committee;

(g) Miscellaneous.

The closing balance of the year shall be shown at the foot of the expenditure side.

10. (i) The account received of the Committee shall be kept in the Imperial Bank of India at each other bank as the Government in Council may approve, and all monies at the disposal of the Committee, with the exception of petty cash and of amounts placed in fixed deposit or invested in accordance with the provisions hereinafter mentioned, shall be paid into this account.

(ii) Any funds not required for current expenditure may be placed in fixed deposit with the bank approved in this behalf by the Government in Council or invested in the name of the Committee in any security in which such property may lawfully be invested under the Indian Trusts Act, 1882.

(iii) The placing of money in fixed deposit and the payment thereof and the disposal of profits so placed or invested shall require the sanction of the Chairman of the Committee.

(iv) Payments by or on behalf of the Committee shall be made on cash or by cheque drawn against the current account of the Committee.

(v) Such cheques and all orders for making deposits or investments, or for the withdrawal of the same, or for the deposit in any other manner of the funds of the Committee, must be countersigned by the Chairman of the Committee (ii) as set out in Part A of the Act shall be signed by the Controller and countersigned by any member of the Committee authorized by the Committee in this behalf.

Rules under section 25 and providing for manner in which the export quota of rubber estate shall be determined.

11. The export quota of a rubber estate for any year shall bear the same ratio to the crop limit of that estate as the percentage exportable surplus bears to the total of the crop limits of all rubber estates in India.

12. The ratio for the purpose of calculating the crop limit of the estate shall be the area of estate under the same actively within the limits.

13. The crop limit of each estate shall be the maximum production of that estate as accepted by the Committee in any one of the six years 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, 1913, and 1914, with the addition of such addition for cuttings and young rubber as young rubber as the Committee thinks fit to add, namely, in the case of young rubber, the yield of the same as at the end of the year 1914, or if there is no such rubber, in 1912 or any previous year.

Provided that the Committee may make such deduction as it thinks fit.

(i) If several methods of production were not followed, or

(ii) if the Committee is of opinion that the planted average is not capable of producing the yield set out in the above method.

14. The crop limit of the estate or estates for which subordinated types of production are not available shall be calculated in accordance with the rules set forth in the First Schedule.

Provided that:—

(i) if the Committee is of opinion that the planted average is not capable of producing the yield set out in the above method in accordance with the rules set out in the First Schedule, the Committee may, in its discretion, make such deduction thereon as it thinks fit;

(ii) if the Committee is satisfied that the planted average for a year of the six years 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912 and 1913, actually produced by natural methods were less than the yield as calculated in accordance with the rules set out in the First Schedule, the Committee may, in its discretion, make such deduction from the crop limit of the estate as it thinks fit.

(iii) For reasons to be recorded, the Committee may, for any estate, withhold for the allowance set out in the First Schedule such allowance as it thinks fit not exceeding the yield of rubber in the same district for which subordinated types of production have been accepted;

(iv) when planting is natural and cultivation is an average basis is not possible, the crop of natural production shall be held in proportion to area; and

(v) the Committee may, in its discretion, grant to those estates which owing to the absence of subordinated types have not been able to prove their yield a higher maximum yield than 250 lb. per acre, such increase as, having regard to yields obtained and proved since the introduction of the Indian Rubber Control Act, 1914, and to all relevant conditions, such as condition of the soil, climatic, yields, etc.,

persons interested, it is notified that applications will not be passed for admission to the Customs Authorities in London in the event of unemployment after the 31st January 1937, unless accompanied by health certificates in the prescribed form.

• In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section 10 of section 10 of the Factories Act, 1948 [XXV of 1948], the Governor in Council is hereby pleased to appoint the President of the College of Engineering, Guindy, as an Additional Inspector of Factories for all the purposes of the said Act, in respect of the Workshop attached to the said college, which is a factory within the meaning of the said Act.

Whereas the Bureau in Chicago is satisfied that the readiness of work in the workshop attached to the College of Engineering, Detroit, which is a factory within the meaning of the Sherman Act, 1896, and the Clayton Act, 1914, are such that there is an appreciable risk of monopolization of the business of Chicago by the said Act.

Now therefore the Governor in Council, in execution of the powers conferred on him by the several statutes in relation to it of sections 41 of the said Act, is hereby directed to exempt the workshop from the provisions of the said section 41.
